The Connecticut Legislature is considering a bill to amend the liquor license law. One section requires all places where liquor or beer is sold to be run independently, and to be entirely separated from every other business. This will make a stir among many city dealers. In Hartford, for example, the most extensively patronized drinking places have the disguise of groceries and fruit shops. The object evidently is to compel every man who sells liquors to do business under true colors, in order that the community may know his occupation, and It is probably believed by those who framed this part of the act, that it will serve as a restrictive measure, as many dealers. rather than be known as such, would prefer to give up the business.

The Thames tunnel is one of the wonders of London. Below London Bridge the means of transportation across the Thames are limited, the necessaties of navigation preventing the building of bridges, so that small ferry boats and skiffs have at present to be resorted to for passage from one side of that crowded stream to the other. It is now proposed to here another tunnel under the river at a point near Greenwich, about four miles below the present tunnel. This tunnel will be a lit. tle more than one-third of a mile long, and is to provide passage both for railway, wagon road and foot passengers. The estimated cost of the work is about three millions of dollars,

FURNITURE ! FURNITURE Small Profits and Quick Sales.' JOHN DUCRO WOULD CALL attention to his large and

SPLENDID STOCK OF CABI NET FURNITURE, The result of his enlarged and increased facilities for business,

He is Prepared to, & is Selling Cheaper than any other establishment of the kind in the country or city. I mean what I say, and would invite the public in general to see for them selves before buying elsewhere. I am making i an object for any one to give me a call, and i will pay them well for coming to see a large stock to select from, which is as large as any in anyelty to select from, which is as large as any in anylory Having sixteen years experience in business am buying all my stock direct from the manufacturer East, and conducting my own business enable me to sell lower than any competitor in the re-gion. My work is as it always has been—the I also have on hand a large stock of Easter work, which I sell very low; among which will be ound single lounges, bed lounges, carpet and rej unges. Spring Mattresses, at greatly reduced prices of Spring Matterson, a my own make,

Don't forget the place a few doors south of Flak
Silliman & Co's Floor and Feed Store.

Also particular attention paid to carpet laying.
Curtain and Cronice hanging, all of which will be done with readiness and dispatch.

Undertaking. I also keep constantly on hand a large assort-ment of ready made Coffins, Rose Wood initation. Black Wainut and initation of Black Wainut, all of which I can trim in two hours notice, in any tyle requested, equal to any city. also have plendld ##earse in readiness when called for. style requested, equal to any city. also have a splendid Hearse in readiness when called for.

Grave Clothers.—A new feature has recently been added to this furniture establishment—or rather to the Undertaker's department of it—one that cannot rail to commend itself to the community, and will show the disposition of the proprietor to make his establishment as perfect as may be. It will go far to relieve the work and bustle, addental to, and so repugnant in seasons of be avenuent, of preparing the remains of the departel for burial. This consists in keeping on hand no ready for immediate use, a stock of grave clethes. A variety or stronds, for noth male and foundle, made up with much taste and appropriateness, various in price, and both black and white materials. A single order for a coffit may therefore, embrace the hat Illiments of the dead, and thus save the friends of the decased, in the midst of grief fre a rauch that keems particularly disagreeable and ancongraous in the way of preparation for the grave.
